

BEST SPORTING FEATURE OF THE DAY

Full Details Relating to the Form of ALL the Horses Running at Aqueduct To-Morrow on Page 8.

WEATHER—Fair and warmer; Tuesday, rain.

FINAL RESULTS EDITION

PRICE ONE CENT.

"BOOKIES" HIT SULLIVAN CLAN ON DR. GARDNER

Fast Track and Fair Fields Attract Good Crowd to Course.

KERRY WON ONE EASILY.

Telephone Wires at Track Cut Out to Handicap the Poolrooms.

(Special to The Evening World.)

AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, April 21.—Following Saturday's drabbing which the Bowery received when the Sullivans and their large coterie lost heavily to the bookies, another kink was put in their bank rolls to-day with the defeat of the much-rehearsed high-class colt Dr. Gardner, at 1 to 3, in the third race. Dr. Gardner, an Excelsior Handicap candidate, was to have primed himself in to-day's race but to the distress of the Sullivans and the thousands who hammered the odds from 1 to 2 to 1 to 3, the Doctor failed to make good.

And the vicissitudes of the racing game—its rises and falls, its up and downs—was never better illustrated than in the disastrous running of the fourth and the outcome of the first race. In this latter was a modest two-year-old named Kerry, owned by W. A. McKinney and purchased several days ago by him for $1,000.

"Like his Irish name and I came from Kerry myself, as I'd like to have him," said "Mac" to "Jack" Jagger, then owner.

"Mac" got the pony paying two handfuls of gold coins for the animal. Running an excellent second in my race essay under the new colors, the Kerry horse romped home first in a gallop to-day backed heavily by his owner to 2 to 1 at the close. Kerry brought at least $5,000 this trip to the new owner and only a consensus of bookies' tally sheets can tell how much more went to the Kerry owners' friends. It was a great day for the Kerrysties, a sad affair for the Sullivans.

The pool-rooms received a severe blow, probably a knockout, to-day when President Culver, of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company, announced at the track that the wires of the company would no longer be used for the transmission of race-track information.

President Culver caused placards to be posted to that effect. It develops that a telephone company has received a telegram of notice, following the action of the Western Union, of two years ago in cutting out the use of its wires leading to poolrooms or dealing in the sale of race-track news to pool-rooms.

Easy Race for Kerry.

Kerry rushed to the front at the start and drew away from the field, winning in a gallop by five lengths from Slumberies, who closed with a rush and nosed Albia out on the post. Select and Sweet Taire were close up but weak.

Duleian Over the Jumps.

Duleian, favorite in the jump, went to the front at the start, made all the running and won easily by four lengths from Tom Cogan, who, though weakly ridden, was an easy second all the way. Dick Shaw was third all the way, in indifferent ridden.

Dr. Gardner Tired.

Dr. Gardner went to the front in the third race and was joined by Athlete. They raced that way to the far turn followed by Hot Today and Orphan Lad. In the stretch Athlete forged to the front and Dr. Gardner began to tire under the weight and spur. Orphan Lad, the only one who had been getting to the post and Athlete won by a head from Orphan Lad, who beat Dr. Gardner a length and a half.

Berkley Was All In.

Tilney and Molsey were heavily paled in the Union Stakes, and both runners were rushed to the front at the start, one winning by four lengths and led to the last sixteenth, where Tilney, Campioner and Jim T. Too were in a red hot drive. Berkley lasted just long enough to win by a nose from Tilney, who beat Campioner a length and a half.

Cinna at the Finish.

Cinna and Jacinta rushed away in front and set a terrific clip, opening up a gap of six lengths over Chica and Retor. They ran this way to the stretch, where the leaders gradually came back to the others. Cinna then closed on Chistopher and in a drive won by three lengths to a head from Chistopher, who beat Trenton Blue the same distance.

Berry Maid a Winner.

Berry Maid went to the front at the start, made all the running, and won easily by four lengths from Bigot, who beat Hands Around six lengths for the place.

CAFE BOULEVARD, 2d av., & 10th st. N.Y.C. — Saturday, Thursday, Saturday, Sunday. Berry Maid much the best. Bigot ran a fast race. Heskin B. had no speed.

The

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

NEW YORK, MONDAY, APRIL 22, 1907.

FINAL RESULTS EDITION

PRICE ONE CENT.

CLERK WHO USED $250,000 OF BANK FUNDS HAD PAL

Second Arrest Expected to Follow Confession by Douglas.

GOING OVER THE BOOKS

Trust Co. Officials Locate a Part of Hypothecated Bonds.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, N. Y., April 22.—Having captured the first from Patsy Donovan's Trolley Dodgers, Manager Billy Murray and his band of bald heads from Philadelphia lined up against the Brooklynites again this afternoon.

The extent of Douglas's shortage is not fully known, but it is believed he made after two of the fellow-employees rallied him to his hiding-place. Murray said he had dipped his fingers into the till to the amount of probably $200.00. While denying the embezzlement has reached such proportions.

(Continued on Second Page.)

THAW LAWYERS UP STATE.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., April 22.—Delinquent M. Delmas and W. H. McGehee, of the council for Harry Thaw, the son of the gunpowder king, Dr. Charles G. Wagner, representing the State Hospital, who was a prominent witness for the defense in the trial of the Kerrysties, were up to-day.

Mr. Delmas and Mr. McGehee were at a time meeting Justice George L. Lyon during recess for a confidential talk.

"I like his Irish name and I came from Kerry myself, as I'd like to have him," said "Mac" to "Jack" Jagger, then owner.

"Mac" got the pony paying two handfuls of gold coins for the animal. Running an excellent second in my race essay under the new colors, the Kerry horse romped home first in a gallop to-day backed heavily by his owner to 2 to 1 at the close. Kerry brought at least $5,000 this trip to the new owner and only a consensus of bookies' tally sheets can tell how much more went to the Kerry owners' friends. It was a great day for the Kerrysties, a sad affair for the Sullivans.

The pool-rooms received a severe blow, probably a knockout, to-day when President Culver, of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company, announced at the track that the wires of the company would no longer be used for the transmission of race-track information.

President Culver caused placards to be posted to that effect. It develops that a telephone company has received a telegram of notice, following the action of the Western Union, of two years ago in cutting out the use of its wires leading to poolrooms or dealing in the sale of race-track news to pool-rooms.

Easy Race for Kerry.

Kerry rushed to the front at the start and drew away from the field, winning in a gallop by five lengths from Slumberies, who closed with a rush and nosed Albia out on the post. Select and Sweet Taire were close up but weak.

Duleian Over the Jumps.

Duleian, favorite in the jump, went to the front at the start, made all the running and won easily by four lengths from Tom Cogan, who, though weakly ridden, was an easy second all the way. Dick Shaw was third all the way, in indifferent ridden.

Dr. Gardner Tired.

Dr. Gardner went to the front in the third race and was joined by Athlete. They raced that way to the far turn followed by Hot Today and Orphan Lad. In the stretch Athlete forged to the front and Dr. Gardner began to tire under the weight and spur. Orphan Lad, the only one who had been getting to the post and Athlete won by a head from Orphan Lad, who beat Dr. Gardner a length and a half.

Berkley Was All In.

Tilney and Molsey were heavily paled in the Union Stakes, and both runners were rushed to the front at the start, one winning by four lengths and led to the last sixteenth, where Tilney, Campioner and Jim T. Too were in a red hot drive. Berkley lasted just long enough to win by a nose from Tilney, who beat Campioner a length and a half.

Cinna at the Finish.

Cinna and Jacinta rushed away in front and set a terrific clip, opening up a gap of six lengths over Chica and Retor. They ran this way to the stretch, where the leaders gradually came back to the others. Cinna then closed on Chistopher and in a drive won by three lengths to a head from Chistopher, who beat Trenton Blue the same distance.

Berry Maid a Winner.

Berry Maid went to the front at the start, made all the running, and won easily by four lengths from Bigot, who beat Hands Around six lengths for the place.

CAFE BOULEVARD, 2d av., & 10th st. N.Y.C. — Saturday, Thursday, Saturday, Sunday. Berry Maid much the best. Bigot ran a fast race. Heskin B. had no speed.

HIGHLANDERS WIN; BROOKLYN IS VANQUISHED; GREAT 'MATTY' IN OLD FORM, DEFEATS BOSTON

DONOVAN'S MEN BADLY BEATEN; SCORE 8 TO 0

Large Crowd Sees Brooklyn Get a Nice Set of Goose Eggs.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA, April 22.—Having captured the first from Patsy Donovan's Trolley Dodgers, Manager Billy Murray and his band of bald heads from Philadelphia lined up against the Brooklynites again this afternoon.

It was admitted this afternoon that the total peculations of W. O. Douglas, the discrediting loan clerk of the Trust Company of North America, arrived yesterday after he had fled from his home in Brooklyn in a hotel in Manhattan, would amount to considerably more than the $20,000 in railroad bonds he hypothesized to protect his margin losses in Wall street speculation. This announcement is also made that there will probably be a second arrest in the case because of a new turn-the official inquiry has taken.

The intent of Douglas's shortage is not fully known, but it is believed he made after two of the fellow-employees rallied him to his hiding-place. Murray said he had dipped his fingers into the till to the amount of probably $200.00. While denying the embezzlement has reached such proportions.

(Continued on Second Page.)

GOING OVER THE BOOKS

Trust Co. Officials Locate a Part of Hypothecated Bonds.

(Special to The Evening World.)

Washington Park, BROOKLYN, N. Y., April 22.—Having captured the first from Patsy Donovan's Trolley Dodgers, Manager Billy Murray and his band of bald heads from Philadelphia lined up against the Brooklynites again this afternoon.

It was admitted this afternoon that the total peculations of W. O. Douglas, the discrediting loan clerk of the Trust Company of North America, arrived yesterday after he had fled from his home in Brooklyn in a hotel in Manhattan, would amount to considerably more than the $20,000 in railroad bonds he hypothesized to protect his margin losses in Wall street speculation. This announcement is also made that there will probably be a second arrest in the case because of a new turn-the official inquiry has taken.

The intent of Douglas's shortage is not fully known, but it is believed he made after two of the fellow-employees rallied him to his hiding-place. Murray said he had dipped his fingers into the till to the amount of probably $200.00. While denying the embezzlement has reached such proportions.

(Continued on Second Page.)

THAW LAWYERS UP STATE.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., April 22.—Delinquent M. Delmas and W. H. McGehee, of the council for Harry Thaw, the son of the gunpowder king, Dr. Charles G. Wagner, representing the State Hospital, who was a prominent witness for the defense in the trial of the Kerrysties, were up to-day.

Mr. Delmas and Mr. McGehee were at a time meeting Justice George L. Lyon during recess for a confidential talk.

"I like his Irish name and I came from Kerry myself, as I'd like to have him," said "Mac" to "Jack" Jagger, then owner.

"Mac" got the pony paying two handfuls of gold coins for the animal. Running an excellent second in my race essay under the new colors, the Kerry horse romped home first in a gallop to-day backed heavily by his owner to 2 to 1 at the close. Kerry brought at least $5,000 this trip to the new owner and only a consensus of bookies' tally sheets can tell how much more went to the Kerry owners' friends. It was a great day for the Kerrysties, a sad affair for the Sullivans.

The pool-rooms received a severe blow, probably a knockout, to-day when President Culver, of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company, announced at the track that the wires of the company would no longer be used for the transmission of race-track information.

President Culver caused placards to be posted to that effect. It develops that a telephone company has received a telegram of notice, following the action of the Western Union, of two years ago in cutting out the use of its wires leading to poolrooms or dealing in the sale of race-track news to pool-rooms.

Easy Race for Kerry.

Kerry rushed to the front at the start and drew away from the field, winning in a gallop by five lengths from Slumberies, who closed with a rush and nosed Albia out on the post. Select and Sweet Taire were close up but weak.

Duleian Over the Jumps.

Duleian, favorite in the jump, went to the front at the start, made all the running and won easily by four lengths from Tom Cogan, who, though weakly ridden, was an easy second all the way. Dick Shaw was third all the way, in indifferent ridden.

Dr. Gardner Tired.

Dr. Gardner went to the front in the third race and was joined by Athlete. They raced that way to the far turn followed by Hot Today and Orphan Lad. In the stretch Athlete forged to the front and Dr. Gardner began to tire under the weight and spur. Orphan Lad, the only one who had been getting to the post and Athlete won by a head from Orphan Lad, who beat Dr. Gardner a length and a half.

Berkley Was All In.

Tilney and Molsey were heavily paled in the Union Stakes, and both runners were rushed to the front at the start, one winning by four lengths and led to the last sixteenth, where Tilney, Campioner and Jim T. Too were in a red hot drive. Berkley lasted just long enough to win by a nose from Tilney, who beat Campioner a length and a half.

Cinna at the Finish.

Cinna and Jacinta rushed away in front and set a terrific clip, opening up a gap of six lengths over Chica and Retor. They ran this way to the stretch, where the leaders gradually came back to the others. Cinna then closed on Chistopher and in a drive won by three lengths to a head from Chistopher, who beat Trenton Blue the same distance.

Berry Maid a Winner.

Berry Maid went to the front at the start, made all the running, and won easily by four lengths from Bigot, who beat Hands Around six lengths for the place.

CAFE BOULEVARD, 2d av., & 10th st. N.Y.C. — Saturday, Thursday, Saturday, Sunday. Berry Maid much the best. Bigot ran a fast race. Heskin B. had no speed.

BROOKLYN HIGHLANDERS

	R.H.P.O.A.E.	HIGHLANDERS	G.I.A.T.S.
Maloney, cf.	0 9 2 1 0	Hoffman, cf.	0 1 2 1 0
Casey, 2b.	0 0 2 0 1	Keeler, rf.	1 1 0 0 0
Lumley, rf.	0 2 0 0 1	Eberhard, ss.	0 2 3 8 2
Orton, 1b.	0 0 7 0 0	Chase, 3b.	2 2 10 2 0
Alpern, 2b.	0 0 1 0 1	La Porte, 3b.	1 1 2 5 1
Lewis, ss.	0 1 2 1 0	Williams, 2b.	0 1 3 2 1
Batch, cf.	0 0 5 0 0	Conroy, lf.	1 2 2 0 1
Riter, c.	0 1 1 1 0	Thomas, c.	1 2 2 0 0
McIntyre, p.	0 0 0 1 0	Hughes, p.	0 0 6 9 0
Whiting, p.	0 0 1 0 0	Kleinow, p.	